WARRANT CALL SCAM

The Kenton County Sheriff's Office and other area police agencies are again receiving multiple complaints regarding calls from persons identifying themselves as being with local police agencies and promising to "get the warrant taken care of" in exchange for a specified amount of money paid on a credit card or money order.

The Kenton County Sheriff's Office does not call individuals who may have missed jury duty or call someone with an active warrant.

In some cases, the name currently being used by the scammers is Captain Stephen Davenport stating he is with the Kenton County Sheriff's office.

This is a SCAM. Anyone receiving a call of this nature should not respond to this type of threat. Do not engage these callers. Do not give them any type of information.

Please contact the Kentucky Attorney General Andy Beshear, Office of Consumer Protection at 888-432-9257 to report continued contact from these callers.

Kenton County Sheriff Chuck Korzenborn
